ROBBERS MURDER A FAMILY OF ELEVEN

Odessa, Sept. 30.—Brutal tortures were inflicted by a band of robbers at Olchovatka, who murdered a millionaire land owner named Achtarsky, his wife and family of 11 persons, plundering the residence and escaping with a quantity of loot.

The robbers broke down the door of the mansion and prevented the escape of any member of the family.

Fired with wines from casks which they broke open in the cellar, the robbers murdered the family in cold blood, killing the children before their parents' eyes.

Then they collected their plunder, set fire to the mansion and rode away.

Want School Dentist For Kiddies' Teeth

"Children, you may now remove your books and papers from the top of your desks and convey your tooth brushes and glass of antiseptic tooth powder to the first position as described in the 'Hygiene of the Tooth as Applied to the School Children.'"

This highly instructive little command will come from a pearly-toothed school marm in a few years if one of the coming legislatures can be prevailed upon to pass a law recommended by the reorganized Columbus Dental society, at a meeting Wednesday night in the Carnegie library, that all Ohio schools have a dentist attached to the staff.

BEATTY IS SUED FOR THAT $180

Upon behalf of the city of Ports Solicitor Small on Thursday entered a suit in common pleas court against Thomas C. Beatty, former city solicitor to recover the $180 unaccounted for by him in the city records, after being appropriated by council to purchase a strip of East Eleventh street land on December 13, 1901. Interest is also asked from this date.

Immediately upon the filing of this action, former Solicitor Beatty, who is now probate judge, acknowledged service of the petition and once more announced that he would resist payment of the money for the reason that he claimed he had promptly returned it to the city when the deal fell through.

Discussing the matter, Judge Beatty stated that while anyone naturally dislikes the notoriety of such a suit, he was glad it was brought. The trial, he says, will give a full opportunity to probe the matter to the bottom. He still insists that he will be able to clear his skirts of any irregularities in the matter whatsoever. Especially since the affair has been given such wide publicity, Judge Beatty says he is anxious to have the discrepancy thoroughly sifted.

In his petition Solicitor Small recites the fact that the defendant Beatty was solicitor from April, 1901, to December, 1905. In the latter part of 1901, proceedings were had in council to appropriate $180 to purchase a six-foot strip to widen Eleventh street east of Lawson, upon its north side, along the lot belonging to A. T. Haines. The warrant was issued by the city clerk, whereby Mr. Beatty as solicitor, was to negotiate the sale with Haines. Former Probate Judge Sikes was the city clerk. Omitting the other formalities of the petition, the language of its closing paragraphs were as follows:

"The real estate above described and referred to was never acquired from the said A. T. Haines, and said sum of $180 was never returned to the city treasurer by said defendant.

"Wherefore said defendant is indebted to plaintiff in the sum of $180, for which sum it asks judgment with interest from December 12, 1906."

This motion was overruled by Judge Blair at the time and the action of Attorney Miller in filing the printed motion, would indicate that he proposes to take the case to a higher court.

Judge Blair gave young Brown a fine of $200 and costs to stand committed to the work house until paid, upon the evidence that he had been porter at the place of William Clifford, where the court has also declared guilty of illegally trafficing in liquor.

AIRSHIP FLIGHT DRAWS CROWD

New York, Sept. 30.—A great military parade and the probability of official airship flights by Wright and Curtiss combine the attractions on today's program of the Hudson-Fulton celebration. Although it was not expected that either Wright or Curtiss would attempt a flight until this afternoon, crowds began to gather early along the river front and at the battery which commanded a view of Governor's Island where the aviators launch their craft. Early in the day the weather conditions were encouraging. While the parade is classed as a military affair, sailors and marines from the war fleet anchored in the North river are chief attractions. The parade included 25,000 men and was scheduled to start early in the afternoon. In addition to the sailors and marines, several detachments of the U. S. army, West Point cadets, New York state National guardsmen, Grand Army Posts and various independent organizations will be in line.

North Yakima, Wash., September 30—Bear meat is better than crocodile.

President Taft made this declaration today after trying the former for the first time at a dinner given at Hayden's Lake by the business men of Spokane last night.

"I am glad to testify," he said, "that one's internal machinery is not as badly stirred up after a meal of cub bear as it is following a repast on the crocodile we have in the Philippines."

President Taft ended his speech with a declaration that he believed the American sense of humor "to be the most valuable asset of our people." He agreed with Kipling, who said: "As long as we have that sense of humor the race will live."

FIRST BLOOD IN COOK-PEARY CONTROVERSY

Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—Pietro Peliniere and Antonio Brevetti, two swarthy skinned sons of Italy tried to settle the Dr. Cook-Commander Peary controversy today. In their own way it was settled. Pietro stood by Peary, but his friend would have it that Cook was the real discoverer, and supplemented that by saying that the Duke of the Abruzzi was even greater than Peary. Pietro was getting the better of the argument, so Antonio with the use of a billiard cue and revolver, put a quietus on Pietro. The latter is in the hospital, the former in jail.

McKEOWN TESTIFIES BEFORE GRAND JURY

A night session of the grand jury was held Wednesday evening, for the purpose of taking the testimony of former Deputy Probate Judge Emmett K. McKeown, who is now located at Ironton. He is employed as book keeper in the offices of one of the furnaces near that city.

Prosecutor Moulton did not know that Mr. McKeown's testimony would be needed by the jury in time for him to catch the afternoon train. In a phone conversation with him, Mr. McKeown agreed to come down on the evening train, and in fact said this would be a great accommodation to him, as he could return at midnight and not lose any time from his work.

When the jury had reconvened after supper, it was found that Mr. McKeown's train was two hours late. He planned however, that he would come by automobile if agreeable, and learning that the jury would wait, he got a machine and arrived here shortly before nine o'clock.

Miss Mame Faivre, the present Deputy Probate Judge and who also held this position in the former administration, was also a grand jury witness Wednesday afternoon. The records of the Probate office were also brought into play by the jury.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Grant Angers Self-Rulers By Marching With 'Drys'

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 30.—Protest against the appearance of General Frederick D. Grant in the uniform of his rank in the United States army in the temperance parade in this city last Saturday was made in a letter sent to Secretary of War Dickinson by W. R. Michaelis, of the executive board of the United Societies for Local Self-Government.

Mr. Michaelis has asked if there is any rule of the war department governing such an appearance and requests that the reply be in the form of an open letter. The letter is as follows:

"On Saturday last Major General Frederick D. Grant, of the United States army, and in the uniform of the United States army, marched at the head of a prohibition parade in Chicago. The above incident has caused considerable comment, and it is rumored that the same means that the federal government and the army in general have taken sides with the prohibition movement.

"It is also stated that the prohibition organizations contemplate bringing about an election in this city next spring to determine the popular will on this question. Our citizens in the main attach themselves to one of the other side of this great question. If such an election is held it should express the free and uncontrolled action of the public.

"Public officers are servants of the people, and should not be permitted to use the advantage of their office to accomplish partisan ends.

"I do not dispute the right of General Grant to take part in this movement as a private citizen, but believe he has no right to head a parade in full uniform, or to participate as a federal officer.

"Will you kindly advise me whether the department has ruled on such conduct, and whether the same can be said to have received official sanction?"

"The letter was not written as an officer of the United Societies," said Mr. Michaelis. "I wrote as a private citizen."

Several letters taking a contrary stand to that of Mr. Michaelis also have been sent to the secretary of war. These are from gentlemen who approve of the action of General Grant and defend his appearance in the parade. They claim the parade was not a "prohibition parade," but was "a movement for great civic righteousness and the enforcement of law and order in Chicago."

SEES GROWTH IN THE CITY

Charles Ball, the contractor, who lately returned to Portsmouth from Washington C. H., finds it hard to recognize the brick house he built on what is now Eleventh street, near Lincoln. The house hasn't changed any except that it is now painted drab, whereas it was formerly red, but the neighborhood is what gets him. When he built the house it was in the meadows, with no other house anywhere near. Of course, he built it on the line of what would some day be Eleventh street, which thoroughfare at that time stopped short at Offnere. Now the entire section is built up solid, and his house is in the center of a block, with a paved street and double track trolley line in front of it. When he built the house and lived in it, the enclosed baseball grounds were only a few rods off, and his second story windows were always full of ladies on days when games were played. Charley says when he wanted to see a game he had to go to the gate and cough up two bits. And all this wasn't so very long ago.

TO ASK OFFICIALS FOR RIGHT-OF-WAY

Representatives of Pittsburg capitalists who are projecting a traction line between that city and Cincinnati and expect to appear before the county commissioners Monday and apply for rights of way through Scioto county.

The Pittsburg parties are represented by Fred Kirschner of Manchester and Henry Ossler of Rome, and they have succeeded in securing the required 55 per cent of owners of property abutting on the public turnpikes to sign the rights of way between here and the Adams county line below Buena Vista. They already have a clear right of way through Adams, Lawrence and Gallia counties.

The proposed line is to follow the Ohio river and is expected to be in operation within three years. The promoters hope to take over local lines at various points and will also build a branch connecting Manchester with West Union. Active work on building the road is expected to be commenced early next spring. Mr. Ossler already has the contract for furnishing the cross ties through the western part of this county and through Adams county. He says the road is a sure go and those who have conversed with him have readily accepted his word.

FUEL RATE MAY KEEP PLANT OUT

It begins to look as though Portsmouth will fail to land the Diamond Flint Glass plant of Jackson on account of the question of cheap fuel.

The coming to Portsmouth of the Jackson plant hinged on this one item and the best the Portsmouth Gas company has been able to offer in the way of a rate is 10 cents. The Jackson people are holding out for 8 cents and will not recede from their position. Their average daily consumption is 550,000 feet and of course the price of fuel becomes a big item. The Board of Trade directors have done their utmost to get an 8 cent rate but have practically exhausted their resources and the Jackson industry may now slide away from Portsmouth. Marietta and other towns have offered the company an 8 cent rate and as the towns all possess other good advantages the Jackson people will likely accept one of the offers.

The Portsmouth Gas company officials claim to have done their best towards giving a satisfactory rate but in all matters of this kind they are guided by the producing company. It is to hoped that something may yet be done to turn the tide in Portsmouth's favor.

N. & W. AND C. & O. HAVE HEARING ON RATE CHARGE

Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 30.—An investigation of the charges brought by the Buckeye Salt company of Pomeroy, O., the Liverpool Salt company, the Dixie Salt company and the Hartford City Salt company, of Hartford City, W. Va., that the Baltimore & Ohio, Chesapeake & Ohio and Norfolk & Western Railroad companies combined and charged them excessive freight rates, thereby discriminating against them, was begun here today at a hearing being held by Walter F. Cormack, special examiner representing the interstate commerce commission. Evidence on both sides was heard today, and the hearing probably will be completed tomorrow. Eminent counsel is appearing on both sides.

HUSBAND HAS SKIPPED OUT

Police made a vigorous search Wednesday evening for Albert Eldridge, a laborer, who deserted his wife and little children.

The family lives at No. 11 East Front street and is left without food or means of any kind. Eldridge had left them Sunday but his wife, who despite his cruel treatment still loves him, tramped the streets until a late hour of night, and finally came across him in the willows near the upper ferry landing. She induced him to return home but he skipped out again Wednesday. He has been in the habit of abandoning her and the little ones. He did so Christmas a year ago and kind-hearted neighbors raised funds in order to provide the destitute family with some holiday cheer. All efforts to locate Eldridge Wednesday night were in vain.

Going Up Are the Poles Despite Kicks

Several property owners have vigorously objected to the placing of poles directly in front of their houses, but the poles are going up just as indicated on the blue prints.

What the Administration has Done

DURING THE TWENTY MONTHS IT HAS BEEN IN CHARGE OF THE CITY, THE PRESENT DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION HAS DONE MORE TO IMPROVE AND BETTER THE CITY THAN HAS BEEN DONE BY ANOTHER ADMINISTRATION.

LAID OVER SIX MILES OF PAVED STREETS AND PARKED THE PROMISING IMPROVEMENTS FOR NEARLY AS MUCH MORE.

SETUP ABOUT THREE MILES OF STORM SEWERS.

CONSTRUCTED TWO AND A HALF MILES OF SANITARY SEWERS.

SECURED ELECTRIC STREET LIGHT AT ABOUT HALF THE COST THEREOF IN FORMER YEARS, AND LARGE REDUCTION IN COMMERCIAL LIGHTS.

GIVEN THE STREETS AND ALLEYS THE FIRST THOROUGH CLEANING THEY HAVE HAD IN YEARS AND KEPT THEM IN SUCH ORDER SINCE THAT PORTSMOUTH IS NOW REGARDED AS THE CLEANEST CITY IN THE STATE INSTEAD OF THE DIRTIEST.

INDUCED THE LAYING OF BLOCK AFTER BLOCK OF CONCRETE SIDEWALKS.

ACCOUNTED CORRECTLY AND LEGALLY, ACCORDING TO THE REPORT OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE EXAMINERS FOR EVERY CENT AS LEGALLY SPENT, OR ON DEPOSIT, THE ONLY CITY SO FAR AS KNOWN WITHOUT IRREGULARITIES OR WORSE IN FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

COMPLETED, AFTER YEARS OF AGITATION PLANS FOR A NEW WATER SUPPLY AND HAVE EVERYTHING READY TO BEGIN ACTUAL WORK THEREON, JUST AS SOON AS THE LEGALITY OF THE BOND ISSUE IS DETERMINED AND THEY CAN BE SOLD.

REMEMBER EVERY DOLLAR SPENT ON PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS WENT TO HOME CONTRACTORS, DISTRIBUTING MANY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS TO HOME LABOR WHEN IT MOST NEEDED IT, SUPPLYING FOOD AND CLOTHING TO HUNDREDS AND KEEPING THE MONEY IN CIRCULATION WHERE IT WOULD DO THE MOST GOOD.

IT FOUND NO RECORDS OR MAPS OF WATER MAINS OR SEWERS, TAPS AND PLUGS—IT IS A RUMOR THESE WERE STOLEN WHEN THE WATER WORKS CREW DESERTED — IT HAS COMPILED FULL AND COMPLETE PLANS, RECORDS AND MAPS OF THESE AND PUT THEM WHERE THEY WILL ALWAYS BE ACCESSIBLE TO ANY ADMINISTRATION, OFFICIAL OR CITIZEN.

Elopement In The Air?

Busy Dan Cupid is having a strenuous experience in his endeavors to unite the hearts of pretty Effie Gunn, 93 East Twelfth street and John Norman, a traveling salesman of a Columbus firm, for, despite the cunning little love gods most skillful exertion to bring the young people together, he has on each occasion been frustrated by the girl's irate mother.

It seems that Norman has been courting the Gunn girl for some time and they had agreed to become married. When mamma's consent was asked trouble came thick and fast for the ardent young lovers, Mrs. Gunn forbidding the match and prohibiting the young man from coming to the home to call. Not daunted, Norman came down from Columbus and went straight to the home of his sweetheart, only to have the door closed angrily in his face by Mrs. Gunn. The girl says she'll marry her sweetheart whether or no.

Prohibs to Name Henry For Mayor

Prof. W. J. Henry, the well known educator, is said to be the choice of Portsmouth Prohibitionists for mayor and will likely be nominated at the convention to be held tonight.

Prof. Henry was a candidate for the same office two years ago. Prohibition leaders say they expect to nominate a full ticket but deny that there is to be any fusion with the Local Option league.

A Breezy Letter From The Northwest

The Times is in receipt of the following letter from Ed Andre, of Harrisonville, who is making an extended trip through the northwest. It describes his trip through Canada as follows:

We left St. Paul Sept. 8, at 1:30 p. m., on the Canadian Pacific, run up to North Portal, where we found ourselves in the hands of the customs officers. They searched our gripsh and trunks, excepting those who had trunks checked through Canada and back into the United States, which were put in bondage and kept until we reached Seattle, where we were again inspected. At Portal we found the United States flag on one end of the depot and the Canadian on the other end.

Leaving St. Paul the train could not begin to handle the people, so we were among the lucky ones to get left. In two hours, however, we had a special of 14 coaches, pretty well packed, mostly homeseekers, going up into Canada. By the time we got to Moose Jaw they were pretty well thinned out and when we reached Calgary there were only 17 of us left goin gthrough to Seattle. All the coaches were taken off but one sleeper and one day coach. Going through to Calgary we noticed they were through cutting wheat, about through with oats and flax, and were threshing wheat in every direction, and as far as we could see it was wheat, oats and flax and it seemed that there was no end to it. We could count from 10 to 15 threshing machines at one time from the car window. They certainly have a bumper crop. The land lays nicely and is a much better country than I ever supposed, although I expect if I should go through when it was 40 below zero, I would think diferently.

There is also plenty of stone coal in that locality.

When we left Calgary we saw great herds of stock, and cattle and horses by the hundreds, and wild ducks by the thousands, especially near the many little lakes.

At 2 p. m. Friday we began to climb the Rocky Mountains. It seemed that all our conductors and engineers had to do was to keep out of the way of the other trains. They ran very slow and stopped at every place of note. The first stop was at Banff, where we spent two hours. It is a grand railroad hotel and national park, and is noted for its grand mountain scenery and wild game.

We traveled 19 miles Friday night, when we were sidetracked and stayed until 6 a. m., when we started at a 10 mile rate, stopping occasionally. By noon Saturday the provisions began to run out with the most of the party. As Mrs. Andre made the trip three years ago, she knew just how to fix up a good fat basket, which I enjoyed at Chicago and along the road, and consequently we were well supplied.

The conductor, however, came through and took our orders for dinner and telegraphed ahead to the hotel Glacier, B. C., a grand railroad hotel. When we arrived here the conductor called out dinner for 17, and told us to take our time and we surely did justice to the occasion, for it was the first warm meal we had had with time to eat it since we left Chicago. After we had eaten supper we had time to take in all the grand scenery, and after starting we traveled around the loop and it seemed as though our train would go over the cliff. We stopped for lunch one hour at Spencer Bridge Junction, B. C., and after lunch the ladies gathered bouquets, and one man from Wisconsin got in a garden and dug potatoes, carrots and kohl rabi. One lady gave the engineer some potatoes and he roasted them in the engine, but they were not relished without seasoning and they went all the same.

As we were going down Frasier river the Indians lined the banks by the hundreds and the fish hung on poles to dry by the thousands.

The men conceived the idea of fishing and asked the conductor about stopping to fish. He laughed and said if we did not hurry along we would never get to our destination.

We never lost or received a passenger until we got to Mission Junction where we took on two or three passengers. Then the engineer got a move on him from there to Vancouver, B. C. The conductor said we went 48 miles an hour, and we could scarcely sit on our seats going around short curves.

Arriving at Vancouver, B. C., we got our supper and took the steamer Princess Victoria Saturday at 11 p. m., arriving at Seattle at 8:30 a. m. Sunday. Here we got breakfast and took the interurban for Fife, where we arrived at 11:30 a. m. and found our boys, Ben and Clay, enjoying good health, and now we are taking in the sights at the exposition and the country around.

We will soon begin our homeward journey through Oregon, California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana to New Orleans, and then start home.

HOTEL DEAL IS CLOSED

The deal whereby the Hotel Norfolk was sold by Howard McKerrihan to James E. Darragh, landlord of the Hotel Portsmouth was completed today and Mr. Darragh will take hold tonight. Mr. Darragh will take charge of the hotel in person and probably bring a part of his clerical force with him, but this is only conjecture. Landlord McKerrihan is out completely and will probably go to California. He is interested in an electric supply company and he is wanted to take charge of territory in the Pacific state. The Norfolk has prospered greatly under his management. The arrivals daily are very heavy. Mr. McKerrihan was very popular with the traveling public and railroad men. Mr. Darragh is a hotel man of experience and will doubtless keep up the fine reputation of the Norfolk. The terms of sale have not been made known.

Enjoined From Planting Pole

To restrain the street railway company from putting a pole in front of her home on West Second street, opposite the mayor's office, Mrs. Elizabeth Dice on Wednesday evening brought an injunction suit against the company in Judge Blair's court through her attorneys, Bannon & Bannon.

The court allowed the temporary restraining order and the work was suspended until Attorneys Milner, Miller & Searl, for the street railway, could file an answer and have the case heard. Late Thursday there was a prospect of a settlement.

This change of poles was designed in order to give West Second street a number of additional street lights of the new type, as agitated by the West End Business Men's association.

Mrs. Raspy A. Broyles Wants Divorce Decree

Mrs. Raspy Argerbright Broyles, the East End girl who figured in the sensational Rev. Fellows church case several years ago, now appears in the local courts as plaintiff in a divorce suit brought against Erasmus Broyles, a car repairer. Her petition was filed by Attorneys Bannon & Bannon Thursday.

For grounds of a separation, Mrs. Broyles sets out that her husband was guilty of adultery with some woman unknown to her in October, 1906. His subsequent behavior toward her amounted to cruelty and caused her to live apart from him since. These allegations of adultery and cruelty, she sets out, should entitle her to a decree.

The parties were married in April, 1904, and they have one child, Virginia, who is four years old. Mrs. Broyles further represents that her husband makes $75 a month and for this reason should be made to care for them. She asks a divorce, alimony and custody of the child. The marriage records at the probate office show that the couple were both 21 years old when they married.

The price of milk will advance one cent per quart beginning with Friday, October 1st.

The price will prevail until April 1st when it will likely be reduced to 7 cents. The Pure Milk company is the largest dairy company supplying milk in Portsmouth. It is not known what the other dealers will do about the change in price but more than likely will follow suit.

TOO MUCH BAGGAGE FOR STAR ACT.

The Art Models De Rossi company, which is said to be the star act at the Majestic the remaining three days of the week was unable to get here for the afternoon performance, Thursday, owing to the fact that No. 16 only carried half a baggage car and the show people were unable to get all their scenery and baggage aboard. It speaks well for an act that cannot get all its stuff aboard a half car and verifies the assertions that the Art Models De Rossi company is one of the greatest vaudeville acts on the road.

FOOT WASHERS GET AN ALL-OVER BATH

Misfortune again befell the strange religious clan commonly known as "Foot Washers," encamped in Lower Nile township, when their newly constructed family boat sank 20 minutes after it was launched in the Ohio river Wednesday afternoon.

The "Foot Washers," consisting of one white man, one negro and about a dozen women had spent weeks building the boat for a winter's cruise to the south. It is thought that it will be possible to raise the boat. The campers are planning a big time for October 6th on which date their quarterly meeting will take place. On this day they will also go through their various special exercises, including that of washing the feet of all new members as well as the old followers.

DESTROY POST CARDS OF EXPLORER PEARY

An incident that clearly illustrates the stand taken by the Danes in the present north pole controversy is related by Carl Hansen, who is just home from a trip abroad.

Mr. Hansen said that while he was in Copenhagen one night a party of 200 students bombarded a post car store, smashed in the display window and seized the entire supply of Peary pictures. They tore most of them to pieces while some they punctured with holes and strung them along telephone and telegraph wires. The Dr. Cook pictures were preserved and distributed among their friends.

Mr. Hansen said that during the 17 years he has been away from Denmark his native country has made wonderful strides. The natives are just as progressive a people as Americans. Denmark has less millionaires than we have but also less poor people proportianately. Germany, too, is progressing but poor old England is a back number. The poorer classes of England Mr. Hansen found to be the most miserable human beings he had ever observed in all of his travels.

NO CLUE AS TO MURDERER

At the sheriff's office Thursday afternoon it was stated that absolutely no clew had been obtained as to the whereabouts of William Scales, the southern negro who murdered his fellow colored laborer, William Stempson at Clifford, Monday night.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle.

The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward with dread to the hour when she shall feel the thrill of motherhood. Every woman should know that the danger and pain of child-birth can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, which renders pliable all the parts, assisting nature in its work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this crisis in safety. $1.00 per bottle of druggists. Valuable book of information to women sent free.

SOCIETY

The Art Circle will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. A. Berndt, instead of Thursday, on account of the musicale at Elk parlors, to which Mesdames J. H. Hagar and Harley Marcenette have issued invitations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Higgins celebrated the eleventh birthday anniversary of their son, Master John Higgins, with a family party Wednesday evening. The occasion was also in celebration of Mr. Higgins' birthday, which was Thursday. A large birthday cake, gleaming with the requisite number of candles for father and son was a brilliant feature of the party. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gims and family, Mr. Gims' mother, Mrs. Margaret Gims, and Mrs. Gims' sister, Mrs. Emil Grosse, of Cincinnati, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Multer, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Higgins.

The bride-to-be will be recalled as a charming little girl, in short dresses, when she visited here with her parents a few years ago. Her mother was formerly Miss Addie Smith, sister of Colonel Floyd L. Smith. Of course everybody in Portsmouth knows her father, big hearted and big bodied "Tib."

"THE PRINCE CHAP" SCORES BIG HIT

Like a breath of spring when the heart is young or a favorite picture in the family album, was "The Prince Chap," that wonderfully well constructed little story that had its second presentation in this city at the Grand on Wednesday evening. In the present day flood of stage offerings, good, bad and mostly indifferent, it seems only fitting to pay unusual need of tribute to this idyl of life theatrical art. From it, exhales an aroma that can be naught but pleasing to the eye, ear and all the finer sensibilities of one's nature.

Three seasons ago "The Prince Chap" dropped into Portsmouth unheralded as from the pen of an established author, but following it was one continuous acclaim from the critics. A few weeks later it was booked into the Madison Square theater at New York and ran there for the balance of the year. The following seasons saw its tour include only the larger cities of this country and Europe and it made lasting fame for its author Edward Peple, the star Cyril Scott, the Pullman children and others of the cast. Upon its return here Wednesday night it was a pleasure to observe that while changes existed in the cast, the production was in no manner cheapened. Elliott Dexter, a finished young actor, enacts the old Scott role splendidly, while the Pullman children, wonderful child actresses, that they are, still remain in the cast. Lillian Raymond, first as the conspirative mother, and then the grown Claudia of the third act, was most engaging in both parts and the principal comedy roles of Puckers and Runion, respectively taken by Norma Mitchell and Bert Walter, were a continuing pleasure. The piece was finely mounted and so well balanced, that the applause was frequent and always sincere.

In spite of the wide vogue of the play, and the favorable reflections of it lingering here, the audience at the Grand was scarcely of one-third capacity, where a full house was deserved. This situation, too, in view of the fact that it was the only strictly dramatic offering so far played here this season and with none others in close prospect. It looks like the problem of getting good returns for a really meritorious attraction at the Grand, is to be a repetition of the experiences at this house of the past two seasons. Portsmouth is not alone in this respect, but the newspaper exchanges report similar conditions existing elsewhere. The craze for vaudeville and moving pictures is doubtlessly responsible for it.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Had it For Years Until He Heard of Mi-o-na: Wurster Bros. Sell It.

If you suffer from indigestion, belching of gas, lump of lead on stomach, billiousness, dizziness, foul breath, nervousness, constipation, or headache, give Wurster Bros. 50 cents today for a box of Mi-o-na, the celebrated stomach prescription, and if it doesn't cure you they will give you your money back. It relieves painful stomach distress in five minutes. Read the following:

"I had stomach trouble for years. After eating I would be troubled for an hour or so with indigestion. I bought one box of Mi-o-na tablets from Geiger Drug Co., which completely cured me. That was 12 months ago and to this day I have not been troubled again." J. B. Haskey, Gaffney, S. C., April 20, 1909.

Mi-o-na is the best prescription for stomach trouble ever written; not only does it give quick relief, but it cures permanently because it thoroughly cleanses, renovates, builds up and puts elasticity into the stomach and bowels. Mi-o-na is put up in tablet form and is small and easy to swallow. Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Portsmouth by Wurster Bros., who rigidly guarantee them. Test sample free. News And Gossip From The Capitol

Columbus, O., Sept. 30.—Perusal of the annual reports of the various state hospitals, to the initiated, might occasion a belief that the patients of these institutions are given a most remarkable diet. For instance, under the head of groceries are shown such choice edibles as rough on rats, darning needles, twine, oil, carbolic acid, vaseline, shoemakers' wax and the like. Secretary Shirer of the board of state charities, who receives the copies of these reports, makes the positive statement that these articles are not fed to the patients. For convenience they are carried under the classification of groceries.

Superintendent Wm. H. Pritchard of the Gallipolis state hospital, declared in Columbus that the board of trustees of that institution would again request the legislature to appropriate $5000 for the employment of a specialist to make a study of epilepsy with a view to finding a cure for it. At the legislative session last winter and during the house made an allowance for that amount for that purpose but the senate cut it out of the appropriation bill. Ohio has the largest epileptic hospital in the country and affords plenty of opportunity for the scientific research the appropriation is wanted for.

A peculiar will was admitted to probate in Franklin county on Wednesday. It is that of William H. Lamb who left an estate of $35,000. His wife is made trustee of the estate until 1923 and during that time she is required to add $75 per month to the estate's income. The residue of the income is for the maintenance of the family. There are two children and at the end of the trusteeship the money is to be divided among the widow and themselves.

Thursday is the last day that foreign corporations doing business in Ohio can pay their Willis law fees to the secretary of state without being penalized. These returns must be sent in during the month of September and most of the companies waited until the last few days of the month before remitting. Last year these fees amounted to upwards of $170,000, and this week nearly $160,000 was paid in. The largest fee was that of the National Carbon company, which paid $10,000. Former Governor Myron T. Herrick is vice president of this company.

State Shop Inspector Kearns has been asked to order the trustees of the Ohio State university to install fire escapes on the main building of the institution which is four stories high and is crowded with students. It is without a single escape. It was built more than 35 years ago and is a veritable fire trap. Parents of students who are taught in this building have made complaint against its unsafe condition to the inspector. He will make an immediate investigation.

Rutherford H. Platt of Columbus, whose term as member of the state charities board expired on April 30 last, will be reappointed by Governor Harmon. He is a Republican. It is probable that, Jesse N. Oren of Wilmington, also a Republican, whose term expired at the same time, will not be reappointed but will be succeeded by a Democrat. Both appointments will be announced as soon as the governor can find a suitable man for Oren's place.

Edward Pagels, the Columbus railroad ticket agent who died suddenly, served here for 39 years in that capacity. Before he came here he was ticket agent at Washington and he knew Booth, the assassin of Lincoln. The federal authorities detained him at Washington while the chase for Booth was on so that he could identify him when captured.

An Almost Newspaper Man

E. F. Rideout, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., had a narrow escape from being a newspaper man. He delivered papers in the town of Holbrook, Nebraska, and later had the agency for Detroit papers in Hillsdale, Michigan, when he was going to college. He was in a fair way to make a fortune when the newspaper management cut the agency in two and Mr. Rideout sold out, just coming out even. Then he lost his taste for journalism and turned his attention to Y. M. C. A. work. His first work was in Holdrich, Neb., 20 years ago, and he has been at it ever since. He admits that if he had stuck to the newspaper business, he might have been a great man, like the rest of us, by this time. But he is not regretful. He says the cutting in two of his agency is what changed his destiny.

PORTSMOUTH MAN SELLS MODELS OF DR. COOK LAUNCH

Owners of the many motor launches in the Ohio river here, will be interested in the fact that Dr. Cook, the discoverer of the north pole, used a motor launch during his Arctic travels. The one he took along was made for him by the Cleveland firm, for which John Joseph, of this city, acts as agent. Mr. Joseph was formerly a pipeman in the East End fire department and is now a driver for the U. S. laundry. He acts as agent for these boats as a side line. Aside from the one he uses himself, he has sold six others to local parties.

Cook's motor boat "Farthest North" was taken with the "Bradley" for scouting expeditions and hunting and fishing trips.

The first rescue work was performed near Oomanook. The engines of the Bradley became disabled in very bad weather. The 30-foot motor boat with a 17 H. P. Ferro motor succeeded in towing her to a safe anchorage. The Bradley is a 100-foot schooner of 112 gross tons and this was a very able demonstration of marine engine efficiency. While the repairs were made the motor boat was the only means of communication with the shore and was kept busy by taking Dr. Cook and other members of the party back and forth.

When Etah, the then most northern point, was reached, Dr. Cook and a small party in the Farthest North went on a scouting expedition in search of suitable winter quarters. Annotook, a town 25 miles farther north, was decided upon by reason of the abundance of furs and food there. Upon returning to Etah, the entire population of that village in the Bradley started for Annotook.

A strong wind had raised mountainous seas and on account of the unknown rocks, shallow water and drifting ice a safe anchorage could not be found for the yacht. The Arctic storm threatened to engulf the entire expedition. The motor boat was pressed into service, and with the greatest speed carried to shore the members of Dr. Cook's party, and a large amount of supplies and equipment. The boats belonging to the Eskimos were towed to shore as the sea was too rough for them to attempt it alone. Dr. Cook says: "The splendid efficiency of the launch proved equal to the emergency, and in the course of about three hours all were safely put to shore in spite of threatening winds and forbidding seas."

Will Ashland Become Seat Of Boyd County

A call has been issued by the county commissioners of Boyd county, Kentucky, for a special vote to be taken on the regular state election day, the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, for deciding whether the court house shall remain at Catlettsburg or be removed to Ashland. The Ashland people have been making a stout fight for the removal of the court house, and it was at their instance that the election was called. Ashland business men point out that their city is more centrally located, more populous and more important than Catlettsburg, and should, in consequence, become the county seat.

Needless to say, the people of Catlettsburg are nowise in sympathy with the Ashland view on the matter and they are preparing to fight to the last ditch to prevent the removal of the seat of justice from their midst. The proud old Gate City has always been the Boyd county seat, and her people can now see no good reason for a change. The fight has been pending for months and the citizens of the two cities have already begun saying pleasant things about one another. The newspapers of Ashland have combined their efforts in the matter, but nothing daunting the Catlettsburg Tribune has already begun firing in return.

In the little more than a month which will elapse before the time for the election which will settle one way or the other the disposition of the bone of contention in this interurban dispute some lively things are expected to happen in old Boyd.

The election in itself is believed to depend largely for its outcome upon the generalship of the politicians who are leading the opposing factions, as the natural strength seems to be about evenly divided.

Soldiers Live At Harrisonville

Will J. Crull, of Frankfort, Ind., went to his old home in Harrisonville Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Crull says when the civil war came on every man in Harrison township of military age, and many who were over and under age, went into the army. He says Harrison is practically a township of old soldiers and sons of veterans. The same way with the village of Harrisonville. Many old soldiers, well to do farmers, have retired from active farming, bought property in the village, and are living there very pleasantly. The Sons of Veterans are doing the active work. The village has come to be one of the pleasantest villages socially to be found anywhere. It is clean and growing.

A great Bible school is expected and every one not connected with some other school is urged to meet with this school which does things.

KELLY BROS. TOO HIGH ON BID

Kelley Bros. were about $2000 above the lowest bidder on 27,000 yards of street paving at Ashland, Ky., bids on which were opened there Wednesday.

The lowest bidder was John Bradley of Atlanta, Ga., whose figures were from $1.67 to $1.89 on Peebles block for the improvement of Winchester and Greenup avenues. No bids were submitted on the Front avenue paving, contractors preferring to wait until a mutually agreeable grade had been secured, says the Independent. The two other contracts will be awarded Oct. 11th.

Food For Reflection

When you stop to consider, the business of Banking, to be really successful, must be conducted on conservative and sane lines. The loans must be selected as though one's own money was at stake. No matter how strong is the organization of a bank, how complete and elegant fittings, its best claim for business must be based on unquestioned security. That is the foundation principle of this bank.

EVENING TIMES SPORTS

PEERLESS LEAGUE OPENS WEDNESDAY

At a meeting of the members of the Peerless Bowling league, held at the Times office Wednesday evening, it was decided to limit the league to six clubs, namely: Heidelberg, Majestic, Masons, All Stars, Owls and Eagles—no others need apply. It was also decided with unanimity to include the Distel alleys—all games to be played on Wednesday nights. The last action taken was that the league should open next Wednesday night to run for a period of 15 weeks.

This, in a nutshell, was what was accomplished at the meeting, and everything passed off as merry as a wedding feast. The members have resolved among themselves that there will be nothing but harmony in their movements during the coming season, and all are prepared to back it up. There will not be that petty back-biting that ran rampant last year—not if the players know themselves and they believe they do.

Practically every captain was present and at least two announced that he had his players all signed and was ready for the gong to sound. On paper the teams look pretty evenly balanced and it will not be a run-away race for the pennant.

The by-laws were amended to suit the needs of the league and thanks to the provisions of the executive committee there will not be any four men teams meeting fire-men aggregations, and the captain of each team, thus, the right to select no matter the audience any player who is a member of the league.

It has also been decided to limit the practice to five minutes, so that the over-sensitive alley owners and managers will not complain that the players are cutting in on their receipts by practicing for half an hour. Some of the members wanted the practice cut out entirely, but in order to give some of the rheumatic inclined artists time to limber up their joints and muscles the time was limited to five minutes.

For the good of the strong box, which is guarded over so zealously by Secretary-Treasurer George Wilhelm, it was agreed among the members to dispense with salaried umpires and score keepers. This will mean a saving of $35 to the league and assures the Detroit team of just that much better time in the City of Straits.

President Young presided over the meeting in his usual good business way, and hustled things along in much the same manner as a ball twist Nos. 1 and 3. He urged the necessity of all captains turning their teams and entrance money over to the secretary by not later than Saturday night, and it behooves the captains to get busy. Secretary Wilhelm already has the money and names of the All Stars and Masons, and it's up to the other managers to "come forth while time is left to make hay.

The meeting was one which can be classed as the ball roller and unless all things go topsy-turvy the air will be filled with flying pins next Wednesday night and the fight for the pennant be on in earnest.

Bob Gets A Corker Of Letter

The first shock I received when I tackled my mail today was this:

I have just got a cablegram from Jim Jeffries stating that hereafter he will be a candymaker. He will begin by making a 200-pound chocolate drop. Yours in sport.

CLARK TALKS ON WINNING PENNANT

Fred Clarke, captain and manager of Pittsburg—I am glad the league race is cinched. Of course, I would have been better pleased if we had driven the last nail in the pennant with a victory over New York, but the team had been working hard. Sixteen victories in a row is evidence just what a strenuous effort the players have been making to finish up. We are in good shape and will continue so until the world's championship series. Every man on the team will play his greatest baseball during this series. It goes without saying that we will have our strength to pit against the winners of the American league race.

Barney Dreyfuss, president of Pittsburg club—Well, the league race is over. Of course, I am happy, but the team has not yet finished and the hardest work is in the near future. We want the world's championship and we expect to get it. If we capture the world's flag I'll be the happiest man in the country. The team has worked hard and is in splendid condition to take on the American league winners. I must confess to eagerness for this series to begin. The commission meets in Cincinnati Wednesday to arrange for the games.

Enquirer Upholds the Ironton Ump.

An Ironton fan referred the disputed play in last Saturday's Ironton-Midgets game to the Enquirer for a ruling, and the answer was made in Wednesday's issue. The query and reply was as follows:

"Runner on first and third, one out. Batter hits to second baseman, who tosses ball to shortstop on second for a force-out. Runner going to second threw his hands up in the air, preventing shortstop from throwing to first and causing a wild throw. Umpire calls batter out at first for such interference. Is this decision O. K.?" Yes, the decision was all right. It is up to the umpire to rule on all questions of interference. As there was intentional interference on the part of the base runner going to second the umpire did right in calling the batter out. All bets must go on the umpire's decision. If one who bet on them have to suffer for their action. Bets go on a forfeited game just the same as if the contest was played out.

"RED" KNOWS HOW TO FILL SACRED TRUST

At a meeting last week in Chicago of the grain congress, composed of delegates from different exchanges over the United States, Mr. Dave L. Harris was appointed by the president of the board of trade of Chicago to look after the Cincinnati delegation, and as usual "Red" did his part. The Cincinnati Price Current, one of the best grain journals in the United States, in speaking of the Cincinnati delegation, had this to say:

"Mr. Dave L. Harris was appointed to look after the Cincinnati delegation, and right royal did he fill the trust, and if there was anything left undone for the pleasure of the Cincinnati delegation, they report they did not find it out, as "Red," as he is familiarly called by the board, outdid himself in furnishing hospitality in every conceivable manner."

MGR. LEWIS IS SUCCESSFUL

Manager Floyd Lewis of the Majestic, arrived home Thursday from a trip to neighboring cities in the interest of the Morris Vaudeville circuit, of which he has been appointed local representative. Mr. Lewis has been instructed to secure houses in the surrounding towns for the Morris syndicate and has succeeded in getting a theater at Hamilton which will be opened up right away. Owners of houses in Wellston, Jackson and Huntington have been approached with a proposition to come in on the Morris circuit and have given encouraging answers to Manager Lewis.

GANZEL'S TEAM WINS PENNANT

The Eastern league's championship season ended Tuesday, Rochester winning the pennant with .034 to spare. The Rochesters were managed by John Ganzel, who transformed them from tail-enders into pennant winners in a year's time. Rochester previously had not won a pennant since 1901. Newark finished second. The champion Baltimore of 1908 had a poor season, landing in seventh place.

PITCHER RAY RETURNS HOME

Pitcher Frank Ray, who proved the mainstay in the box for the Dubuque, Iowa, team in the Three-I league, arrived home Thursday to spend the winter. Ray's team finished sixth, but had all its pitchers rendered the same quality of service as he, another story might be told. The local boy had an unusually good season and expects to move up to a high berth next season.

WELLSTON HIGH PLAYS HERE SATURDAY

The Wellston high school team will be the contender in the football game with the team of Portsmouth high next Saturday afternoon at Millbrook park. The date was closed by Manager Nichols of the local team by wire late Wednesday afternoon and all arrangements for the game are being made. The Wellston team beat the Logan high school team last Saturday afternoon 22 to 0, which goes to show that there are good football players in the bunch. The game will not be another shilly-shally foot race as was the Ironton game and a large crowd will be out to root for the locals.

Miller Huggins To Manage Hens

In Toledo there are rumors afloat to the effect that President Armour is after the services of Miller Huggins of the Reds to manage the Hens next season. Armour is said to have been in Cincinnati and it is reported has opened negotiations for the second baseman. Huggins should make a good man for the Toledo team if he can be secured and his usefulness at Cincinnati is about over.

Murphy Congratulates The Pirates

Chicago, Sept. 30.—Charles W. Murphy, president of the Chicago National League Baseball club in a letter today to President Dreyfus, extends congratulations to the Pittsburg club for winning the National league pennant.

"We also trust that you will be successful in your efforts to win the world's championship."

JAMES FRY IS ROBBED?

James Fry, an employe of the Wait-Fuller Company, reported to the police that he had been robbed of a gold watch and some small change Wednesday morning.

Fry boards at the Wallace home, No. 193 East Ninth street, and just as he and his roommate arose in the morning he told the latter the time of day and then put his watch in a wardrobe. They went to work together and were side by side all day, so that he does not suspect the roommate, but rather believes some sneak thief entered the room during the day. Police are investigating.

Had Fit In Chillicothe

While waiting for the east bound N. & W. train this morning a man whose name was unknown to the persons about that place, had a fit in one of the waiting rooms at the Union station, says the Chillicothe Gazette. Dr. Holmes was called to attend him, and gave directions as to his care until the train came in, when he was helped aboard and left for Portsmouth.

In his struggles, the man cut the side of his head slightly, and the blood flowed from this wound and covered his face.

A Correction.

In the item Wednesday concerning the fact that the Grand Hotel had been leased by Mrs. Clarissa Smith and Mrs. Stearns, The Times made an error in that it stated Mrs. Stearns was an expert hair dresser. No doubt she could soon cultivate the art, but the fact remains that Mrs. Smith deserves that title and not her friend and partner, Mrs. Stearns.

Dr. McKerrihan Saw the Future

When Dr. McKerrihan first came to Portsmouth it was with an intention of becoming a citizen. He came here from his home in Moundsville, W. Va., to represent his wife in the settling up of the large Judge Calter estate, his wife being a relative of the Judge. The doctor says he saw right away that Portsmouth was a town with a future and made arrangements to locate here. At that time, though, Portsmouth was a town with a future and made arrangements to locate here. At that time, though, Portsmouth was a pretty dead place, but the doctor saw the conditions for prosperity were here, and being a man who looks ahead instead of backward he took a chance. He has never regretted it.

Girls Get Back Home

The two Cincinnati girls who accompanied a couple of Portsmouth boys to this city, Sunday night, and who were left stranded by said youths, returned to the Queen city Thursday morning. They were not "busted" as at first thought, for they succeeded in making a touch from new made male friends in this city, and had a sufficient sum to purchase first class tickets. They have been staying with a family on Fourth street while in the city.

Sub-Lets Contracts

C. E. Nourse, who secured the general contract for the erection of the Mitchell Manufacturing company's new plant on East Eighth street, has sublet the brick work to Kaps Bros., and the painting to O. D. Foster.

A CAR LOAD

At the pole so far away, there are no bargain sales they say, and base ball fans are scarce up there so high; no police is there employed, for with jags they're not annoyed, and insurance agents in that land are shy. Megaphones are there unknown, and there is no telephone; no automobile scorching, no candidates so gay; but in a month or two, the news will come to you—a car of Spartan Stain is on the way. Spartan Stain is fast becoming the housewife's friend all over the world. Manufactured by The Marietta Paint & Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by Schloss & Co., 414 Chillicothe street.

"JUMBO" WAS ARRESTED

Mrs. Lydia Williams, better known as "Jumbo," who resides at the corner of Twelfth and Gay streets, was arrested by Officers Phillips and Walker, Wednesday night on the complaint of a couple of neighbors, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Powell that she was intoxicated and raising a disturbance at their homes.

When Mrs. Williams appeared before Mayor Scarey, Thursday morning, she denied emphatically that she had been drinking and said the two women had caused her arrest out of pure spite work. She offered to prove her assertions, and her case was held open. Mrs. Williams offered to put up a $50 diamond ring as security, but she was released on her own recognizance.

Seventh Street Nearly Done.

The paving of New Seventh street is nearing completion. This will conclude the street paving east of Offnere and between Gallia and Fourth. Property complications stand in the way of paving south of Fifth street at present. The people living or owning property east of Offnere and south of Gallia think that section is destined to become the great residence division of the city.

Mrs. George S. Hail, wife of the new head of the Keepers, took advantage of Wednesday's fine weather and drove their fine family horse overland to this city from their former home at Columbus.

Attorneys Henry Bannon and Dever on Thursday morning presented their motion to quash the affidavit against Paul Esselborn local brewer for alleged unlawful delivery of beer in the city. The ground of the motion was principally that it contains two separate offenses, that of selling and furnishing intoxicating liquor.

Judge Blair promptly overruled the motion and the trial of the case was set for next Tuesday morning at nine o'clock. The state was represented in the argument by Judge Harry Bull, attorney for the drys.

KILLING OF SUFFERING WIFE IS JUSTIFIABLE SAYS JUDGE

Paris, Sept. 30.—A man whose wife is dying of an agonizing disease is justified in killing her to put an end to her suffering, if she implores him to do so.

So it was decided in the court of assizes here today, which acquitted Edmond Baudin, who, at her prayer, shot and killed his wife on January 31 last.

Mrs. Baudin had been afflicted with asthma for years. It gripped her throat, it was a weight on her lungs, it stopped her breath. She begged her husband to aid her by killing her quickly of the affection that was slowly throttling her.

Baudin, a mechanic, 39 years old, a rough and plain spoken man, sought to justify his act with words as straightforward as they were dramatic.

Tears streamed from his eyes while he testified. The jurors also wept, and the women in the court room were semi-hysterical.

"My wife, whom I loved dearly, had suffered fearfully from asthma," Baudin testified. "She could not sleep. If she laid her head on the pillow she would cry, 'I am choking! In the name of thy God, end my misery! Let me die!'

"On the night she—she died she was suffering intensely," Mr. Baudin went on between sobs. "The medicine she was taking was nearly exhausted.

"'I will go and get you some medicine,' I said.

"'No,' she said, 'buy no more medicine. If you love me, put me out of my misery. Prove your love and let me leave you. Kill me. If you were a determined man, you would not see me suffer as I do.'

"I was maddened by the sight of her agony," Baudin said. "I secured a revolver with which I intended to defend our home; I shot her in the head; she died instantly.

"I determined then to kill myself, but I thought of my sister, the only other being who depends on me. I went to see my sister. She wept, but told me I should surrender myself to the police, which I did at once."

"But," said Dupre, "he was incited to his fatal act by the stronger will of his wife. Pity for her, directed by her will, led him to shoot her."

A Bond Issue Policy For Ohio Improvement

The adoption of a definite and positive bond issue policy for the improving of the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cairo will be one of the principal subjects at the annual convention of Ohio Valley Improvement association at Cincinnati, October 14-15, says the Enquirer. Former Secretary of State of Ohio Daniel J. Ryan will open the discussion of this subject in an address advocating the plan of congress authorizing a sufficient amount of bonds to carry out the project, the bonds to be issued from year to year as needed.

President Taft has declared himself in favor of treating the Ohio river on this plan, which is the same as that on which the Panama Canal is being built, and Secretary of State Knox, while a United States Senator from Pennsylvania, also declared himself in favor of the bond issue plan. With two such friends at Washington the friends of the Ohio river believe that the time is ripe for making the greatest possible effort to settle favorably the nine foot stage question.

"The convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement association this year must be a success, it would be a crime under all the circumstances for it to be anything else," said President Charles A. Mirsch, of the Fifth-Third National Bank, yesterday. "We will have delegates here from every city and town on the Ohio river, for residents of every one of them know the importance of river improvement, and we must entertain our visitors courteously and hospitably.

"Think what it will mean if the Ohio river, instead of being navigable as now for only three months in the year, is made navigable for 12 months of the year. It means a new era for all of the Ohio valley, every community in it would be benefitted, but none more than Cincinnati. Jobbing was formerly our principal business—now it is manufacturing, and cheap and reliable transportation for coal and iron would mean the upbuilding of industries all along the river.

"Competition would not necessarily injure the railroads, though it would regulate their rates, for it would increase all traffic and bring to market things which otherwise would never be shipped. The New York Central bitterly fought the Erie Canal until it discovered that instead of being a detriment it was one of the road's greatest feeders. One reason why Cleveland in some things has gone ahead of Cincinnati is that it has both rail and water facilities, and any one who has studied the matter knows that a great industrial center must save both means of transportation.

"We must take off our hats to the founders of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, and who are still the most active in it. It is the father of the natural association and has accomplished more than any similar organization. Now is the time and the opportunity to push forward, and the whole Ohio valley should move as one man to accomplish the improvement of the Ohio river."

All of the business sessions will be held in the Sinton convention hall except one, which will be held afloat on the trip to inspect the dam, now nearing completion, at Fernbank.

"As a railroad man I heartily favor the improvement of the Ohio river from Pittsburg to Cairo and doing the work just as soon as it can be done," said Eugene Zimmerman, who returned to the city Sunday. "The railroads were not able to handle all the freight offered them two and three years ago, and the way things are going now it will only be a few months until they are again unable to handle the traffic of the country. Long before the Ohio can be improved to a nine foot stage there will be more than enough traffic to crowd it with steamboats.

"But the system should be changed. This building of a dam here and a dam there, and stopping and starting work every so often, should be stopped. It is not business-like and is extravagant and wasteful. The work is now all mapped out and it should be started all along the line at the same time and pushed until it is finished. The iron and coal trade alone, both of them growing enormously, would justify improving the Ohio. No railroad man who knows anything of the traffic to be handled will oppose improving the river."

Colonel John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement association, came down from Columbus yesterday to attend a meeting which will be held at the Business Men's club today of the executive committee of the association and the chairmen of the different convention committees. From his personal experience on his recent trip to the river towns, and reports which he has received, Colonel Vance said that there will be not fewer than 1,000 delegates at the convention, and that probably the number will pass the 1,200 mark.

STARTING WORK ON NEW ENGINE HOUSE

Director of Public Service Jas. P. Brennan got busy with a sickle cutting weeds and thus clearing the site of the new hill top fire engine house at Grant and Franklin avenues Wednesday afternoon. Later the city engineers staked off the building.

Ground was to have been broken by Contractor Emory Rickey either Thursday or Friday and Mr. Brennan was to have the honor of throwing the first shovel of dirt. All of the various contracts save one have been signed up and the work may now proceed without further delay. The one contract temporarily held up is that of the roofing. Mr. Brennan has not fully satisfied himself as to some points regarding same and as no haste is required he is thoroughly inquiring into the matter.

ST. CAR VICTIM WILL RECOVER

Lawrence Carter, the four year old son of Mrs. Mary Carter of North Chillicothe street, who was struck by a west bound street car at the corner of Findlay and Twelfth street, late Wednesday afternoon, is resting easily at the home of his grand parents on Findlay street, and his recovery is assured. However, he will be laid up for some time as his injuries are quite painful.

The little fellow had a close call from death, and had it not been for the presence of mind of the motorman, Glenn Bierley, he would have been killed outright. Motorman Bierley, however, reversed his car and it was not moving at more than three miles an hour when the lad was hit by the step. He was hurled a distance of twenty feet and when Motorman Bierley reached his side the lad was thought to be dead. He remained in an unconscious state for nearly twenty minutes, but now his mind is clear and so far as Dr. Berndt has been able to determine he was not injured internally. His body is covered with bruises, and quite a gash was cut in his head, which required several stitches to close. Eye witnesses to the accident attach no blame whatever to Motorman Bierley, who was completely unnerved over the mishap and had to be relieved of his run. Rather Motorman Bierley is given great credit for displaying such coolness and for the actions he took to prevent the collision.

Finished Concreting.

Kelley Bros. have finished the concrete work on New Seventh street and their forces are now engaged in finishing Fourteenth street, after which they will return to Seventh street to begin laying brick.
